PROJECTS

Pomodoro App

is a time management programm that encourages focused work by breaking it down into intervals. It involves working for 25 minutes, known as a "pomodoro," followed by a short 5-minute break. After completing four consecutive pomodoros, a longer break of 15-30 minutes is taken. This technique promotes productivity, concentration, and effective time utilization, allowing individuals to better manage their tasks and maintain a balanced work rhythm.

Leksika.uz

is a site that helps you search for English words, see their meaning, and hear their pronunciation. In addition, the site contains the latest research results, news, and English grammar lessons
